The Viking

DEDICATION

This annual is dedicated to all those who made our school reorganization possible.

We of the Viking Staff who are about to depart as graduates of 1960 sincerely hope that in future years this issue of the VIKING will be a cherished memento of happy years at Zeeland High School; A reminder of favorite classmates and of the wonderful hours outside the classroom.

For most of us, we have been students here four years and now, though hesitantly, we must leave by the open door and step out confidentially to face a future that is uncertain. But in whatever degree of success or of failure we may find ourselves in years to come, if a glance at these pages will lighten our labors and ease our pains--if only for a moment--we deem our yearbook worthwhile.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 8, 1956 thirty-six shy, intelligent, and industrious Freshmen filled the rooms of Zeeland High School. They were the following: Alice Streifel, Jenny Lacher, Lavern Mitzel, Judy Jund, Helen Nolz, Walter Bauer, Elton Wolf, Charles Kiefer, James Salwei, Clarence Meidinger, Elsie Kiefer, Patty Moos, Lavina Silbernagle, Alvin Berreth, Dan Klein, Arnold Meidinger, Milbert Meidinger, Jerome Feist, Jeanette Wagner, Jerome Nolz, Moritz Wald, Milton Brandner, Norbert Feist, Richard Nolz, Harley Schwind, Dale Rempfer, Kenneth Ottenbacher, William Pfeifer, Richard Streifel, Robert Scherr, Paul Moos, Dale Schumacher, Thomas Schatz, and Rodney Wald. We were welcomed by our teachers, Supt. Roman Rengle, Prin. Orin Evans, Hugo Korpi, and Virginia Kramer. The big event of our Freshmen year was initiation. We were initiated by the Sophomores then given a welcome party. During the year Elton Wolf quit school, which left us with thirty-five.

The following September thirty-five Sophomores returned to school to see if they could gain additional knowledge. We had lost a classmate but had gained one in return. Jeanette Wagner had gone to Ashley to school and Bonita Aberle had joined us. Our class was the biggest class that Zeeland High School had ever had. All the teachers had returned for another year of toil with the exception of Orin Evans, who was replaced by Raymond Ehley. This time we were the ones to do the initiating and give the Freshmen a welcome party. We also served for the prom during our Sophomore year. Milbert Meidinger quit school during the year leaving us thirty-four Sophomores.

In the fall of 1958 the school doors were opened by an all-new faculty. They were Supt. Howard Watts, Prin. Raymond Ehley, James Murray and Richard Merchant. Kenneth Ottenbacher had gone to school to the Mobridge Academy, which left us with thirty-three in our class. Our Junior year was the busiest year throughout all of our highschool years. We had to earn money to put on a prom and banquet for the Seniors in the Spring. One of the first things we put on was donkey basketball. On April 18th and 19th we presented our first play. The play, "Hillbilly Weddin!" was a smashing success. We picked "Tropicana" for our prom theme. We gave our prom on May 7th. It was beautifully decorated and we were very proud of ourselves. Another highlight of the year was the ordering of our class rings. On graduation we formed the honor gaurd for the graduating Seniors, causing us to look towards the future and to the night we would be graduating.

The ring of the old school bell on September 7, 1959 brought back thirty-one Seniors. Moritz Wald and Harley Schwind had gone to other schools and during the year Charles Kiefer joined the Navy. Now our class was narrowed down to thirty. All of the teachers returned with the addition of Edward Pluth. Some of the events that took place during our Senior year were homecoming, carnival, and skipday. In October Bonny Aberle was chosen Homecoming Queen and Dennis Pfeifer was chosen Marshall. In November Judith Jund and Daniel Klein were chosen to reign as King and Queen Carnival. For our skip day we went to Green Lake and spent a wonderful day together. We went to Bismarck in February to have our class pictures taken. On April 8th we presented our second play, which was "The Boarding House Reach". On April 12th the Juniors had their prom. Once again it was beautifully decorated. Their theme was "April Showers". On May 23rd we gave Paul Moos a farewell party, for he left for the Navy just one week before graduation. As graduation drew nearer we picked our motto, flower, and colors. The motto was "Not Finished, Just Begun", the flower was the red rose, and the colors were white and gold. On May 27, 1960 we recieved the diplomas that we had waited for so long.

We hope that the succeeding classes will remember our friendships and faithfully promise to toss a kindly word towards the good things we have done and hold in high regard the examples we have set before them scholastically.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Elsie,

Well, I'm back from my tour of the states. I thought that perhaps you'd like to hear about it, since I saw all of our old classmates.

I took a plane from Bismarck to Minneapolis, Minnesota. Alice Streifel was a stewardess on the plane. She told me she owns a beautiful home outside of Minneapolis. She is still single and she just loves her job. We had a nice little chat which ended all too soon, for my plane landed in Minneapolis a few hours later. At the airport I ran into Rodney Wald, who had just returned from New York. He invited me to spend a few days with his family. He has a beautiful wife and three children. He is a doctor in a hospital right in Minneapolis. After my visit there, I went to buy a car to travel with for the rest of my trip. The garage I went to was owned by Dale Schumacher. He is still single but oh, what a salesman. He has William Pfeifer employed as a mechanic. William is single too and he told me that he and Dale are really living it up.

From Minneapolis I drove to Wisconsin and from there to Chicago, Ill. I stopped there to visit a friend in the hospital and I found out that Dan Klein was the head doctor in that hospital. I talked to Dan and he informed me he was married and had four children. I spent two days with Dan and his family then went on my way to Ohio. Right outside of Columbus I was stopped for speeding, although I was only doing 70. But it turned out alright, for the patrolman turned out to be Walter Klein. He invited me to his home for supper. His wife is an excellent cook and she's so nice. Walter told me that Alvin Berreth was working as an electrical engineer in Columbus, but he was out of town on business. He has a brand new home and his own swimming pool. He seems to be very prosperous.

After leaving Columbus I went to New York City to visit Judy Jund. She and her husband are living in a penthouse. They have six children. Both of them are teaching high school in New York. Judy told me that Norbert Feist was working as an automechanic in Georgia, so I motored to Georgia to see if he was as prosperous as all of my other classmates. Sure enough, he owned a gigantic shop and his brother, Jerome Feist, was his partner. Norbert is still single but Jerome is married and has three children.

From Georgia I drove to Memphis, Tenn. to visit Bonny Aberle. She hooked a rich, handsome, Southerner. They have four children and Bonny has given up teaching. I stayed with them for a couple of days then started on my way for Texas. However, I ran into a little car trouble. I stopped at a garage and it turned out to belong to Clarence and Arnold Meidinger. They are in business together. They own a huge mechanic shop. Both are married. They told me that James Salwei stops there occasionally so I waited until he did, then had a nice chat with him. James owns a large truckline. He is married and lives on a ranch.

From there I finally got on my way to Texas. There I was the guest at three gigantic ranches, which belonged to Dale Jung, Milton Brandner, and Richard Nolz. They all have beautiful ranches and I stayed two days at each place. The only one that is married is Richard. He and his wife have seven children.

After my visits in Texas I went to Deming, New Mexico. I went to a motel for a good night's rest and I was very surprised to see that Lavina Silbernagle was working there. She told me that her husband owned the place and she was working there. Her husband worked as a diesel technician and he was working with Thomas Schatz. Lavina invited me to her home for a day. She has two children. We all went to visit Tom. He is married also and is doing very well for himself.

My next stop was in Los Angeles, where I visited Paul Moos. In five years he can retire from the Navy. His wife is a beautiful brunette and she is in the Waves. They don't have any children but they do have a home that looks almost like a mansion.

From California I went to Washington. While filling gas at a station, I saw Robert Scherr. He took me to his home to meet his wife and his nine darling little girls. Bob is working as a mechanic in that gas station. He lives in a sweet little white cottage with his family. They seem so happy. While in Columbus, Wash. I visited Helen Nolz. She's still teaching and was married just two years ago. Her husband is a professor at the state university. Helen and I decided to have our hair done at Jenny Lacher's Beauty Salon. She did a wonderful job on our hair. Jenny is now the owner of chain beauty shops all over the country. She is married and is the mother of five. I spent a day at Helen's and a day at Jenny's then left for Yellowstone Park. There I visited Walter Bauer. He is a forest ranger there and says he'd never give up the great outdoors. Walter is still a bachelor and says he likes it very much. After a short visit there I went to Pierre, S. Dak. Lavern Mitzel is teaching there. She is married and has four children, all boys. I spent a short time with her then went to visit Jerome Nolz and his wife. He is a fireman in Pierre. He owns a ranch too, but goes there only on weekends.

From Pierre I came back to Bismarck. The only classmate I didn't see was Dale Rempfer. Dale is a news commentator for NBC. He was overseas on an assignment. Dale lives in Florida. I saw Richard Streifel just last week. He is married to a beautiful blond and owns a ranch outside of Mandan. He is a game warden now.

Well, I guess that about covers it. I had a wonderful time and I'm ready to go back to teaching. I'll be the supervisor of a brand new grade school this fall. I just bought myself a new home and I'm decorating it myself. You and your family must come and visit me soon. I'd enjoy that very much.

Love,

Patty

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1960, being of sound mind and body, are assembled here to give our last will and testament.

To the faculty we will our patience and understanding, for we know they will find them very useful.

To the Juniors we will our ability to co-operate and get along with each other as well as we did.

To the Sophomores we will our ability to say the right things at the right time and our ability to keep our mouths shut when necessary.

To the Freshmen we will our intelligence and our undying respect for our superiors, and hope that they will use each as well as we did.

Robert Scherr wills his ability to eat ten hotdogs at a time to Gene Boschee, who looks as though he already eats ten per meal.

Lavina Silbernagle wills her cheerleading techniques to Rebecca Nolz and she hopes she will use them to boost the Zeeland Vikings.

Paul Moos wills his height to Robert Klein, who could lick anyone if he was just a little taller.

Rodney Wald wills his way with girls to Claude Moos, who, with a little nerve, could be a regular Romeo.

Dale Rempfer wills his quietness and willingness to study to Dennis Pfeifer, who would be a model student if he was just a little more quiet.

Richard Streifel wills his hairdo to Walter Meidinger and hopes that Walter will use it to attract girls as he did.

Walter Bauer wills his gait and quiet temper to David Salwei, who finds it a little hard to control his at times.

Bonny Aberle wills her way with boys to Lucille Schumacher, who seems to be doing alright already.

Dale Jung wills his ability to look innocent after committing small crimes to Jon Jund, who gives himself away everytime.

Thomas Schatz wills his dancing techniques to Judy Pfeifer, and hopes she will forget about studying for awhile and learn to dance, as he did.

Helen Nolz wills her willingness to go to chorus all the time to Judy Levi, who can't seem to bring herself to go everyday.

Patty Moos wills her ability to get away with reading books in every class to Billy Aberle, who might settle down a little if he had something to do.

Milton Brandner wills his quick wit to Rose Schumacher, who seems to shy to say anything.

Judith Jund wills her ability to make paper airplanes out of almost anything to Mary Silbernagle, who would enjoy throwing them during classes if she knew how to make them.

Dale Schumacher wills his ability to make it to Strasburg to every dance to Tom Salwei, who seems to have the hang of it already.

Clarence Meidinger wills his ability to talk his way out of being kicked out of class to Leona Streifel, who could do with a little of this technique.

Lavern Mitzel wills her ability to keep quiet at all times to Lena Kiefer, who likes to talk whenever she gets the chance.

Jerome Nolz wills his cowboy hat and neckerchiefs to Steve Zimmerman, who, with these items, could look like Robert Horton.

Alvin Berreth wills his ability to stay out of mischief to sister Elaine, who seems to enjoy getting into mischief.

Genny Lacher wills her ability to stay after school gracefully to Julia Schweigert, who never could see what good it did to keep students after school.

William Pfeifer wills his ability to get along with everyone to Alice Wolf and hopes she will keep the same friends as he did.

James Salwei wills his love for school to Wayne Scherr, who doesn't seem to care too much for it.

Alyce Streifel wills her mischievous nature to James Jangula, who never has to stay after school.

Richard Nolz wills his ability to skip tests to Marcella Vetter, who either gets to school for them all the time or has to make them up the next day.

Arnold Meidinger wills his ability to skip school every now and then to Richard Wald, who seems to get a kick out of playing hooky.

Danny Klein wills his ability to keep on the good side of all girls to Max Schmaltz, who has a little trouble doing so everyonce in awhile.

Elsie Kiefer wills her little calender to Alice Wolf, who seems to have a little trouble keeping her dates straight.

Norbert Feist wills his out of town girl friends to Robert Jahraus and hopes Robert will return them to him if he ever comes back.

Walter Klein wills his crewcut to James Pfeifer, who seems to have to comb for hours in order to get his into shape.

Jerome Feist wills his ability to sleep anytime of the day, especially in school, to William Schumacher, who is always awake, even at three in the morning.
